Number of Absences	Highest Grade Possible
0	A+
1	A-
2	B+
3	B-
4	C+

-Excused Absences Policy: Absences due to medical emergencies are excusable with official documentation (e.g., a medical certificate) submitted within one week from the date of absence.

-Tardiness: Arriving more than 10 minutes after class starts is considered tardy. Two tardies count as one absence.

-Late Arrival: Arriving more than 30 minutes after class starts is considered an absence.

2. Attitude/Participation: Since this is a language course, active participation and a sincere attitude are essential. Points will be deducted from your participation score for the following reasons: absence from class, playing games, studying other subjects, or doing other tasks on the computer during class. Additionally, leaving the classroom during class, not actively participating in class activities, studying unrelated Korean materials, or doing Korean homework during class will also result in point deductions.

3. Assignments/Tasks: After each unit, students must complete workbooks according to the progress and submit them on KLMS. Submission deadlines for each assignment will be announced on KLMS. Assignments are managed by the TA, and the scope and submission instructions should be followed as directed by the TA.

※ If a student is found to have submitted another person's assignment as their own, it will be considered academic misconduct. Consequently, the student will receive an F grade and will be prohibited from enrolling in Korean language classes for the subsequent semester.

4. Quizzes/Oral Tests: Quizzes and oral tests will be conducted after completing 3 units. Quizzes will cover vocabulary and expressions from the textbook. Detailed information about the tests will be announced in advance.

5. Group Presentation/Final Exam: Students are required to prepare for two group presentations. The first presentation will take place the week before the midterm exam, and the second presentation will be the week before the final exam. Each group, consisting of 3-4 students, will give a speaking presentation. The final exam will cover all the material from the textbook, workbook, and lectures, and it will include sections on reading, listening, and writing.
